GENERAL INFORMATION

CANCELLATION POLICY: Written notice must be received 5 business days prior to the program (E-mail: lgaspar@cailaw.org). After this date, no refunds, but substitution of attendees will be permitted with prior approval. Call 972.244.3408 or 972.244.3415. Registrants who paid tuition and are not entitled to a refund can receive the course materials.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY: The Center for American and International Law does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status or any other protected status in educational activities, scholarship programs or admissions.

PRIVACY POLICY: We do not sell or rent information to any outside parties. By providing your information, you will receive postal and electronic communications from The Center for American and International Law (CAIL) in accordance with CAIL's Privacy Policy. At any point, you can opt-out or unsubscribe by selecting either link at the bottom of each e-mail or call us at 972.244.3400.

Electronic materials: Attendees will receive access details at the seminar, and will need a device that is Wi-Fi enabled (and equipped with a PDF reader) to access the materials. Registrants must attend the program to receive the course materials, unless tuition was paid.

* Tuition will be used to cover future expenses of CAIL's Actual Innocence grant programs or to provide for items that the grant cannot sufficiently cover.

 Voluntary contributions go to support The Center for American and International Law (CAIL), a nonprofit institution, and will go directly to CAIL's private fund account.
