

Institute for
LAW ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

SCHOOL OF POLICE SUPERVISION
HOSTED BY TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
AUGUST 7-11, 2017 / MODULE I
COURSE SCHEDULE

Monday, August 7
8:30	Welcome and Course Overview
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Professional Writing A course designed to enhance writing skills for police managers. It will include a basic review of grammar and syntax in commonly-experienced writing situations. This program will utilize a number of practical exercises for effective writing in memoranda, reports and project assessments.
3:30	Adjourn
Tuesday, August 8
8:30am	Procedural Justice and Police Legitimacy This session will cover the concepts of police legitimacy and procedural justice by using an adult learning approach that encourages open and honest dialogue. This is part of a continual policing effort in maintaining positive relationships and trust within our communities.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Procedural Justice and Police Legitimacy (continued)
3:30	Adjourn
Wednesday, August 9
8:30am	Team Building (ROPES) This experiential learning session focusing on cooperation, communication, and problem solving, uses a variety of tools, participants will have an opportunity to observe and practice some of the basic concepts of organizational efficiency.
11:30	Lunch (provided)
12:30pm	Team Building (ROPES) (continued)
3:30	Adjourn
Thursday, August 10
8:30am	Role Identification and Transition Role identification and expectations of first line supervisors, along with competencies of excellent supervisors, are covered in this block of instruction. Management, individual and subordinate expectations are all discussed.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Employee Motivation and Counseling Participants will learn techniques and strategies for counseling with employees and will discuss and understand variables in counseling with employees.
3:30	Adjourn

Friday, August 11

8:30am	Ethics in Law Enforcement This instruction will examine a range of issues affecting the ethical climate in organizations, and strategies for positive movement in that arena. Against the backdrop of “street ethics,” participants will have an opportunity to learn and utilize several models for ethical decision-making as an antidote for ethical difficulty in law enforcement.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Ethics in Law Enforcement (continued)
3:30	Adjourn