

Institute for
LAW ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

SCHOOL OF POLICE SUPERVISION
HOSTED BY TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
SEPTEMBER 11-15, 2017 / MODULE II
COURSE SCHEDULE

Monday, September 11
8:30	Leadership 101: Leadership Lessons Learned This block of instruction is based on the instructor's real-world experiences ranging from dealing with negativity; delegation; manage by walking around; emotional survival; swift and consistent action... just to name a few.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Leadership 101 (continued)
3:30	Adjourn
Tuesday, September 12
8:30am	Diversity for Law Enforcement This course will provide the practical knowledge and skills to enhance positive cross-cultural community relations. Participants will learn strategies that will aid in effectively managing police-community contacts.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Diversity for Law Enforcement (continued)
3:30	Adjourn
Wednesday, September 13
8:30am	Key Principles of Military Leadership This block of instruction is based on military leadership and presented to students for application in a law enforcement setting.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Accountability Participants will learn the definition of accountability and discuss types of accountability along with mechanisms of accountability within the law enforcement profession.
3:30	Adjourn
Thursday, September 14
8:30am	Stress Management This session will examine the causes and psychological aspects of stress in the workplace, along with an exploration of management strategies. Topics include the unique characteristics of stress in a law enforcement environment, with particular emphasis upon the role played by law enforcement organizations.
11:30	Lunch (on your own)
12:30pm	Time Management Participants will learn techniques and strategies for good time management skills including setting priorities, the use of planning tools, getting organized, scheduling, delegating... just to name a few. These new skills should result in higher levels of productivity, more energy, less stress, positive relationships and increased self-esteem.

3:30	Adjourn
Friday, September 15
8:30am	Community Policing: A Practical Approach Participants will identify and discuss leadership issues in society and law enforcement and define real life examples of servant leadership and problem oriented policing strategies. In addition, a template is provided for how to transition a traditional/command and control organization to a servant led/employee organization that is sustainable for the future needs of the organization.
12:30pm	Lunch (on your own)
1:30	MID-TERM EXAM / PAPERS DUE
3:30	Adjourn