COURSE OVERVIEW

1/28 - 2/22

School of Police Supervision

Hosted by:

This course is designed for first-line supervisors and middle-level management. It should be of interest to law enforcement agencies concerned with the professionalism of their management team. This is the only independent four-week school in the nation for police supervisors and recognizes the importance of supervision as a major management function in law enforcement. The curriculum focuses on the transition from “street policing” to management, especially the social and personal adjustments.

TCOLE CREDIT

This course will meet the basic requirements established by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE) for the preparation of new supervisors for their supervisory role (3737). Successful graduates of this course will receive 120 hours of credit.

Topics (for a complete list visit www.theilea.org)

- Role Identification and Transition
- Employee Motivation and Counseling
- Procedural Justice and Police Legitimacy
- Servant Leadership
- Honoring Boundaries: Preventing Sexual Harassment in the Workplace
- Stress Management
- FLSA
- Followership

Who Should Attend?

This course is well suited for experienced, newly-promoted or aspiring first-line supervisors, especially those seeking supervisory excellence in a law enforcement environment.
